European Committee for Standardization

A standards organization whose mission is to foster the economy of the European Union in global trading, the welfare of European citizens, and the environment.

Notes

- The European Committee for Standardization is a major provider of European standards and technical specifications.

Alternatives

- CEN
- Comité Européen de Normalisation
- Europäisches Komitee für Normung

Related Links

- European Committee for Standardization
- CEN TC251 - Health informatics