

ELAG April Conference Call - Postponed

Dear ELAG,

Based on the responses to my previous post, we will be postponing the April ELAG call until Wednesday 29th April from 7:00 UTC to 9:00 UTC.

I will, however, check back in with everyone prior to this meeting to confirm that this is still a suitable time.

Once again wishing you, your families and friends good health!

Kind regards,
Linda.
