

Clinical Webinars

In support of the development of the clinical community of SNOMED CT, we are hosting clinical webinars to provide a greater insight into the work of clinicians working with SNOMED CT.

The aim of the webinars is to provide a platform to share real world experiences. Notifications of the webinars will be published in the SNOMED International and Clinical Engagement Blogs.

In addition, all webinars will be recorded for those who are unable to attend the calls.