

Transfer of Collaborative space from Collabnet to Confluence

The new Observables and Investigation Model Project collaborative space is: (Observable and Investigation Model Project Home)
This replaces the Observables Collabnet site migrated from: (https://csfe.aceworkspace.net/sf/projects/observable_and_investigation_mod/)
Accounts have been set up for those who have not already used Confluence. In order to get access please first go to the Confluence site and reset your password here (<https://confluence.ihtsdotools.org/forgotuserpassword.action>) using your email address. You should then receive instructions to the registered email address on how to reset your password. If you have any problems, please contact confluence@ihtsdo.org.
