

4.3. Extended Searches

Extended searches enable the search to return more candidate matches. The intention of extending searches is to maximize the likelihood that the required Concept or Description will be included in the candidate matches. This sub-section describes some recommended techniques for extending searches.