

Drug Model Guidelines Available for Review

The Editorial Guidelines for International Drug Model document has been released to the Project Group for review; advisory group members wishing to view or comment on the document can find further details under the Announcements section on the following Confluence site:

Drugs Project