constraint

A rule that limits the attributes, values, and associations that may be applied to a particular component.

Examples

- A modeling constraint may limit the permissible defining relationships applied to a particular type of concept.
  An instance data constraint may limit the permissible refinements that may be applied to a particular concept.